MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 13, 1904.

Fires in New York.

Thirty firemen were temporarily overcome by tobacco smoke and the fumes from alcohol early yesterday while fighting a fire in Holtz's cafe, in Broadway, New York. The fire was confined to the subcellar, in which liquors and cigars were stored, and the fumes and the dense smoke from the burning cigars hindered the firemen to such an extent that they were compelled to work in two-minute relays. During the fire an ambulance surgeon was stationed near by to care for the firemen, whose eyes caused them intense pain after each rush into the smoke. The damage to the restaurant was $100,000. The upper floors of the building are occupied by wholesale milliners, and the loss on their stock, which was practically ruined by the smoke, is also placed at $100,000.

Another early-morning fire in the warehouse and storage houses of the Jacob Hoffman Brewing Company, in East Forty-fifth street, yesterday, caused a loss estimated at $200,000. Here the firemen saved the brewhouse, which contained several large ammonia tanks, and by the shutting off of power in the engine-room allowed the ammonia in the storage pipes in the burning buildings to escape, thus preventing explosions. One of the firemen fell from a roof, but caught hold of a line of hose and slid safely to the ground without injury.

Attacked by Dogs.

Earle W. Wallace, an artist, of Norfolk, Va., is at the Flushing Hospital, New York, recovering from exposure and severe bites inflicted by a pack of curs. He was found running wild, almost nude, and followed by the curs in the woods near the Highlands section of Flushing. He had been occupying a small hut near the edge of the woods for some time. During his occupancy he had covered the walls with fine paintings and had made several credible sketches of the surrounding landscape. Harry Mohl telephoned the police that a man was running wild in the woods, and a search was made for him. He was found unconscious near a pool. He was surrounded by a pack of tramp curs and had been bitten in several places. He was almost nude. He was taken to the Flushing Hospital, where his wounds were cauterized, and later to the station-house in a cab. He seemed to be awakening from a trance and appeared rational. He gave his name and said he was a graduate of Packard University. He said his father was Col. William H. Wallace, a veteran of the civil war. He will be held to await examination as to his sanity.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.
Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Resorts of the South.
A beautiful specimen of artistic printing is "Summer in the Land of the Sky," a booklet issued by the passenger department of the Southern Railway, descriptive of the famous resorts of the Virginias and the Carolinas and other Southern States, reached by the Southern. It contains many half-tone illustrations showing the most noted of North Carolina's pleasure resorts and boarding houses with rates of each. It is a most useful guide. Copies may be had upon application at ticket offices, or by addressing L. S. Brown, General Agent, Washington, D. C.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

Mayor's Office,

Alexandria, Va., June 1, 1904.

All persons owning or intending to keep any kind of the dog or canine species must come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the auditor. After the 15th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license can be fined (as the laws on the subject require) $5 for every dog so owned or harbored.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send their dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and the policemen will report all such cases, and fines will be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who are applying for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, &c., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the auditor.
